

Honorary Consul License Plates Fee Increase

Issue Date: August 29, 2011

New Information

Effective with vehicle registration expiration dates of December 31, 2011, and later, Honorary Consul License Plate fees will increase.

Increased Fees

The Honorary Consul License Plate fees will increase as follows:

Transaction	Current Fee	New Fee
Original	$40	$48
Renewal	$25/30	$38
Substitute	$30	$38
Reassignment	$20	$38
Retention	$25	$38

Continue to process Honorary Consul License Plate applications following the current procedures shown in the Vehicle Industry Registration Procedures Manual §21.190.

Background

Honorary Consul License Plates are issued to an honorary consular officer or similar official, who is a citizen of the United States or a permanent resident of this country, and who is appointed by a foreign country for the purpose of facilitating and promoting the interest of that country.

The intent of the original Honorary Consul License Plate legislation was that Honorary Consul License Plate fees would reflect the same fees as other environmental license plates. Honorary Consul License Plate fees were overlooked and never increased.
